In buying Monuments remember there is as great a difference in quality as there is in woods for durability. I handle none but the highest grade money will buy. I employ no agents, and can save you one-fourth in price below agent's prices. I keep Monuments on hand for your inspection then there can be no deception; you know then whether you like it or not.

usually fine program is promised, and everything points to an interesting and very successful meeting. Paw Paw invites everybody to come and have a good time.

A new organization has been formed in Paw Paw under the name of the Paw Paw Collection Agency. It is composed of Ward Bartram, Leo Warner and W.
A. Lemaux. The company is prepared to make all kinds of collections, take judgments when necessary and do a general collection business. We wish the new firm success.

A Sunday school convention will be held at the M. E. church February 14, when a number of the county officers will be present. Morning and afternoon sessions. All friends of the various Sunday schools of Paw Paw township should endeavor to make this meeting a grand success. It was thought last week this rally would be given up on account of the meetings at the Baptist church, but it has now been decided to abandon the evening session only.

A telegram was received yesterday afternoon announcing the death of Charles H. Butler of Whitehall, formerly a prominent citizen of Paw Paw and at one time Van Buren county treasurer. He had many friends here, who will be grieved to learn of his death. The remains will be brought to Paw Paw for burial. The funeral will be held at the Presbyterian church Sunday morning at 10:30, under the direction of Paw Paw lodge No. 25, F. & A. M., of which Mr.
Butler was a member. Masons will meet at the hall at 10 o'clock. The burial will be at the Wilder cemetery.

Mrs. J. J. Woodman, in a communication to the Courier this week, criticized The True Northerner for expressing its honest opinion of the singing of Charlotte Mendell of the Cleveland Orchestra company. It would seem to us that it would have been better to address her reply to the public through the columns of this paper, which would have been freely open to her on request, rather than to make use of another publication.
However, we have no fault to find nor apologies to make. We were perfectly honest in our judgment, and when a public entertainment is given we feel perfectly free to criticize it, no matter under whose auspices it may be given.
We believe the vast majority of the audience coincided with our judgment, and even Mrs. Woodman is constrained to say "she did not fully meet our taste or expectation."
